

Amy Cornwell

11 Ribbleton Grove, Calderstones Park, Whalley, BB7 9RF
Mobile: +44 7891 379811 Email: amycornwell1@googlemail.com
LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/amycornwell

Recent Lancaster University law graduate looking for a graduate job in marketing. Within my final year I have juggled many time-consuming extracurricular activities, which has reignited my passion for creativity and producing content. I have excellent problem-solving and organisational skills developed throughout my time at university and job in retail. Through my membership in sports teams and volunteer work, I demonstrate my ability to work well as both a team member and as a leader.

Education

Lancaster University - October 2020-June 2024

LLB Law (Study Abroad) First Class with Honours

- With the vast amount of content and reading within law, it has developed my effective time management which has allowed me to complete all work before deadlines.
- Law requires working through complex issues and coming up with innovative solutions which still follow the precedent of common law and statute. Throughout my degree, practicing this has given me good problem-solving skills.
- As part of my degree, I lived in Norway for a year to attend the University of Bergen, where I adapted to a new culture, showing my adaptability to new, international and multi-cultural environments.

St Christopher's Church of England Sixth Form, Accrington September 2018-June 2020

A Levels: Law (A), Psychology (B), Biology (C)

AS Levels: Film Studies (A)

Ribblesdale High School, Clitheroe September 2013-June 2018

GCSE's: 10 GCSE grades A-C

Experience

Captain, Netball Team, Lancaster University October 2021-2022, October 2023-2024

- Leading and planning bi-weekly training and matches has allowed me to practice effective communication and leadership skills.
- Further weekly meetings with other team captains to organise sporting events and team politics demonstrate my ability to focus on both academia and extracurriculars.
- Working effectively as a team to win matches to further progress the success of our team in the netball league demonstrates my team-working skills.

Digital Content Officer, Lancaster University Law SocietyJune 2023-June 2024

- Social media promotion, within this role, I created a minimum of 5 promotional posts a week on Instagram (@lulawsoc); managed LinkedIn; and Linktree.
- I created and maintained the website (www.lulawsoc.co.uk) to a professional standard to ensure society sponsorships.
- I collaborated with international law firms for events, including workshops, a Law Summit and promotional content for the firm within the terms of our sponsorship agreements.
- Directed and edited a promotional video for the Law Summit event held by our society (available on the Instagram stated above).

BPP Campus AmbassadorJune 2023-June 2024

- Social media promotion of postgraduate courses and legal careers
- Within this role, I improved my public speaking by aiding a BPP representative in her lecture, speaking to a room of over 250 students. Additionally, I held promotional events wherein I promoted BPP by word of mouth to over 100 students.

Retail Assistant, Party People, ClitheroeAugust 2018-March 2020

- Volunteering to take on additional workload when other staff were absent, as such emphasising my commitment to my role.
- Resolving both in-face and over the phone customer queries and complaints helped develop my emotional intelligence, allowing me to communicate more effectively with others.
- Handling cash payments between the bank and business developed my proficiency in maintaining professional and reputable relationships on behalf of others.
- Assuming a leadership role on the shop floor when no other team members are available; responsible for all transactions, stock deliveries, and taking and preparing of orders. This demonstrates my trustworthiness as the youngest employee running the shop floor.

Media Assistant (Work Experience), Hyndburn Borough CouncilJuly 2019

- Researching historical accuracy of facts and preliminary writing of articles for the Council's quarterly newsletter.
- Capturing photographs of the town and photoshoots with Council workers for the newsletter publication and the Council's social media.

Other Interests

- I volunteered weekly at my local scout group as a young leader, planning, organising and leading sessions as well as attending weekend camps and events.
- In doing the Duke of Edinburgh award, for my final presentation I made a short documentary of the process of obtaining the award, with a specific focus on the actual camping and hiking. This short film has since been used in school assemblies to advertise the award to prospectus students.
- Sport plays a large role in my extracurriculars. Throughout my time in education, I have been a member of the football, netball, rounders, badminton, cross-country and swim team.
- I have an interest in photography, because of this, I am the team photographer for my netball team.

References are available upon request.